RESIDENTIAL PERMIT TYPES AND COSTS:

- Cost to is Free for homeowners and their direct family that reside at the same address.
- Cost to tenants/lessees is Free (Max of 2 Permits issued to rental property address)

RESIDENTIAL PERMIT GUIDELINES:

- Residential Parking Permits are valid June 1st through May 31st annually regardless of permit start date.
- A Residential Parking Permit is valid only when visibly and properly displayed.
- Permits are not transferable to another person or vehicle.
- The permit is valid only on the block for which it is issued.
- The permit shall not guarantee or reserve to the holder a parking space; rather, once a parking spot has been found, the holder of a permit may remain at that spot beyond the two-hour or one-hour limits.
- The permit applies only to the period of time when the parking limitation is in effect. Typically, the hours are 8am to 6pm.
- A permit does not authorize the holder to park a motor vehicle or let it stand in such places or during such times as the stopping, standing, or parking of motor vehicles is prohibited or set aside for specified types of vehicles, nor does it exempt the holder from observing any traffic regulation other than the specified hourly limit.
 - Examples of traffic regulations and other parking regulation:
 - Emergency or Maintenance Alternate Side Parking. Vehicles are to be parked on the even-numbered side of the street on even-numbered calendar days from 12am to 6pm and on the odd-numbered side of the street on odd-numbered calendar days from 12am to 6pm. Please visit our website if further info is needed on Emergency or Maintenance Alternate Side Parking.
 - A motor vehicle may not be stored on a City street for more than 48 hours.

LEGAL INFORMATION:

- Any person who falsely represents him/herself as being eligible for a Residential Parking Permit or who furnishes any false information in the application to the Police Department in order to obtain a Residential Parking Permit shall be in violation of this regulation.
